

We hear you.
We see you.
And we're not
responding by word,
we're responding by deed.

Ed Gainey,
Mayor of Pittsburgh

RIGHTS

In the City of Pittsburgh

WHO ADVOCATES FOR PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES WITHIN CITY GOVERNMENT?

- The ADA & Disability Resources Coordinator in the Mayor's Office of Equal Protection administers accommodations, investigates grievances, and works with the City County Task Force on Disability to advise the Mayor. The Office of Equal Protection ensures City compliance with civil rights laws to make Pittsburgh accessible to all people, inclusive of their disabilities.

WHAT IF I NEED AN ADVOCATE SOMEPLACE OTHER THAN THE CITY OF PITTSBURGH?

- Check out our Disability Resources Center for links to organizations serving the disability community.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

CAN I SEEK DISABILITY ACCOMMODATIONS WHEN I USE CITY SERVICES?

YES. Under the Americans Disabilities Act, the City of Pittsburgh is required to ensure that our facilities, services, and programs are accessible to people with disabilities and in compliance with the ADA.

WHAT CAN I DO IF THE CITY ISN'T COMPLIANT WITH THE ADA?

Please file a grievance or contact us at ADA@pittsburghpa.gov.

HOW DO I REQUEST ACCOMMODATIONS FOR CITY SERVICES?

- Residents and visitors who need reasonable accommodations to access and fully participate in City services, events, and programs should submit a request at bit.ly/43cJ2Fr.

HOW CAN I FILE A COMPLAINT WITH THE CITY?

- If you think the City of Pittsburgh has failed to comply with its obligations under the Americans with Disabilities Act, please submit a grievance at <https://bit.ly/437PT1N>.
