Programs and Services*

Provide a brief description of any programs or services your organization or group provided in alignment with your STOP the Violence proposal.

Overall, the Youth Workforce Initiative has made substantial progress in meeting and, in many cases, exceeding our measures of success. These results are a testament to the dedication of our staff, the commitment of our students, and the invaluable support of our partners. Moving forward, we aim to build on these successes, further refining our approach to ensure that all participants have the tools they need to thrive in the event and entertainment industry.

Increase participation in the expanded Start On Success (SOS) program by 25% and achieve a retention rate of 80% for students enrolled in the program.

Progress: We successfully expanded participation by 30%, exceeding our initial goal. This was accomplished through targeted recruitment efforts in underrepresented communities and partnerships with local schools and organizations.
