The grant supports the South Pittsburgh Peacemakers /CURE Violence team who prevent gun violence by forming relationships with the highest-risk individuals and provided trauma informed care and alternatives to violence gun violence.

IMPACT*

Please describe the impact of your program or project on violence in your neighborhood(s).

The South Pittsburgh Peacemakers are well known to the neighborhoods, providing 8 hours a day, 5 days a week of violence prevention, mediation and trauma informed care, thus reducing the risk factors of gun violence.

Share Your Stories

Share any stories that illustrate your progress or significant milestones in your project, program, or organization.

Feel free to provide any links to social media posts or to upload flyers or other promotional materials.

The Peacemakers have an ongoing presence in Carrick HS 5 days a week and it is reported that violence is down in the school by 50%. They have also started a Peacekeepers movement in Carrick HS that sets an example for the youth to prevent /stop violence that they may encounter as well as the program being a role model for them to turn their lives around. Each "Peacekeeper" is acknowledged by the school over the PA system and given an award by SPCP at the Community Collective meetings. One youth who was repeatedly in trouble completely turned his life around, was an honor student and accepted into 2 colleges.
